ABOUT BGCA-AFFILIATED MILITARY YOUTH PROGRAMS

In 1991, during the Persian Gulf War, Boys & Girls Clubs of America (BGCA) began a partnership with the U.S. Armed Services to offer BGCA's youth programming to military-connected young people. The partnership was solidified in 1995 and participating centers were designated BGCA-affiliated Military Youth Centers. In total, BGCA has 221 affiliated organizations that operate 470 BGCA-affiliated Military Youth Centers, serving more than 221,500 youth.

Additionally, MISSION: Youth Outreach, a partnership between BGCA and the Joint Military Services, connects children of families who do not live near or have access to a Military Youth Center to access free or reduced cost memberships at traditional Boys & Girls Clubs.

FLORIDA'S BGCA-AFFILIATED MILITARY YOUTH PROGRAMS

The Florida Alliance is proud to have 9 BGCA-Affiliated Military Youth Programs in our membership, with a total of 12 youth program sites across six counties. Additionally, six traditional Club organizations participate in MISSION: Youth Outreach, expanding access for military-connected youth to as many as 145 additional sites in another 10 counties.
